Status of the supplementary test according to DIN EN 17255 of your data acquisition and evaluation system D-EMS 2020

Dear Mr. Nestler,

We hereby confirm that the testing of your data acquisition and evaluation unit in accordance with DIN EN 17255 has been successfully completed. The DAHS D-EMS 2020 from DURAG data system GmbH was tested in accordance with the series of guidelines DIN EN 17255 Sheet 1, Sheet 2 and Sheet 3 in the following software version:

D- EMS 2020

Software Version: 2.0.2407.21494

The evaluation unit was tested in accordance with the above-mentioned guidelines by means of a simulation data set as well as a functional and document check.

The test results will be reported to the responsible expert committee for test reports at the spring 2025 meeting. As an publication endorsement can only be made by the responsible committee of authorities in spring 2025, discuss the possible use of the new software version with the appropriate employees of the operator and point out that the use should be agreed upon with the local authority.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

Kind regards to Hamburg
